

Discover Your Giving Path

The Building for Kids is excited to partner with Thrivent to help you and your family embark on a Generosity Journey! Use this worksheet as a fun way to guide discussions and discover ways you may want to help out in our community.

Step 1: Take a quick quiz

Fill in the circles to indicate your responses to the questions below.

At the Building for Kids, I most enjoy:

- Experimenting in The Lab
- Making projects with my family in The Studio
- Building in Construction Junction exhibit
- Playing in Food to Grow
- Taking care of patients in the Doll Hospital

My favorite part of the school day is:

- Social Studies
- Science
- Gym Class
- Lunchtime
- Math

I want to help:

- Make sure people have food to eat
- Make sure people have a place to live
- Make sure my community is happy and healthy
- Make sure schools are fun, safe, and educational
- Make sure the earth is cared for

I could see my future job being:

- Teacher
- Doctor/Nurse
- Chef
- Builder
- Scientist

If I could invent something, it would be:

- A robot chef that makes healthy meals for everyone that's hungry
- A robot that helps kids with their schoolwork
- A robot that picks up litter
- A robot that can build houses
- A robot that takes care of people whenever they are sick or feeling sad

Step 2: Review Your Responses

Count and write down how many of each color circles you filled in on the previous page. Then, based on your results, you can use the key below to determine a cause and organization that your family may be interested in supporting.

- Food & Hunger: If many of your responses were orange, your values and interests indicate that you care about making sure everyone has access to healthy meals and that no one goes to bed hungry. You may be interested in supporting Feeding America, an organization that provides nutritious food to children, families, veterans, and older adults facing hunger.
  - The Environment: If many of your responses were green, your values and interests indicate that you care about the environment, and you want to keep the earth healthy. You may be interested in supporting Heckrodt Nature Reserve, an organization that aims to help all people have access to, enjoy, and learn from nature today and always.
  - Kids, Families, & Education: If many of your responses were teal, your values and interests indicate that you care about making sure kids and families in our community have valuable opportunities to learn, play, and grow. You may be interested in supporting the Building for Kids, an organization that helps give everyone a chance to learn through play.
  - Health & Wellness: If many of your responses were pink, your values and interests indicate that you believe everyone deserves to feel happy, healthy, and cared for. You may be interested in supporting Samaritan of the Fox Valley, an organization that helps kids, parents, and families care for their mental health by providing counseling, early support, and tools to navigate big feelings and life's challenges together.
  - Shelter & Homelessness If many of your responses were blue, your values and interests indicate that you care about helping families have safe and comfortable places to live. You may be interested in supporting Pillars Inc, an organization that helps those experiencing homelessness in the Fox Cities through emergency shelter, supportive housing programs, and case management services.

The cause I want to support is: _____

Step 3: Learn more and take action!
